Newsletter

August 2010

Welcome to the August edition of the ourbookclub Newsletter where we bring you our latest reviews and book news. We have made some changes to our website, including easier shopping for books (who doesn't want that), with a link under each review. Also, while you are there, why not pick up the movie/TV version and soundtrack.

Remember if you enjoy the Newsletter, forward it to your friends. Thanks for your support – Natalie and Tracy

Pick of the Month for August 2010

In honour of the 50th Anniversary of the fabulous book To Kill A Mockingbird we have selected this as our Book Pick for August. Click here for a full review.

What's New

Shopping Online

We have made it easier to purchase books through our site, just click on the link under every book review. Don't forget to pick up the Movie/TV version and soundtrack!

We are also pleased to introduce Barnes & Noble to our choice of Affiliate Online Bookstores.

By the Bed for August/September 2010

The Passage

(Justin Cronin)

The first in a post-apocalyptic trilogy where a mysterious darkness seeps into the world. Ridley Scott has already bought the book.

Amsterdam

(Ian McEwan)

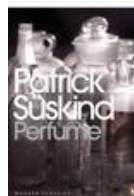

A tale of friendship between two men as they pay their last respects to Molly, a former lover of them both.

Perfume

(Patrick Suskind)

A classic and an international best seller about a murderer and a man with an incredible sense of smell.

Home

(Marilynne Robinson)

A son returns home to help care for his dying traditionalist father, with both seeking to repair the past.

And Finally.....

In the unnecessary but inevitable US remark of The Girl With The Dragon Tattoo, Daniel Craig has been signed to play Mickael Blomkvist. Keep up with the Dragon Tattoo news.
